Our congregation has been waiting for the arrival of a Haitian family. They are scheduled to fly out of Cap Haitien on May 31st, but have a dangerous six hour trip to reach that airport. Please keep Fenite and Naelle in your prayers as they travel. The Witness Commission is busy preparing an apartment for this family and could use some help to move furniture and clean the furniture on June 1st. Contact Paul or Sandy Brubaker if interested in helping. Also, some of you volunteered to purchase specific items to help this family get started. Please give those items to Sandy Brubaker before June 1st. Thank you so much for your love, prayers and concern regarding this mission of service to a family in need of safety and security.
